Annual Community Safety Review - Tuesday 7 November

Tandridge District Council is inviting businesses and residents to the annual review of community safety in the district being held on Tuesday 7 November at the Council Offices, Oxted at 7pm. The meeting is open to residents and business in the district and is an opportunity for people to have their say about the issues affecting them and discuss how these can be solved by working together.

Surrey Police and Crime Commissioner, David Munro, the Council's Chief Executive, Louise Round and senior officers from Surrey Police will discuss community safety work in the district.

To register for this free event, e-mail customerservices@tandridge.gov.uk or call 01883 722000. While registration is not required for the event, it will help with planning. To find out more, e-mail Community Safety Manager, Hilary New, hnew@tandridge.gov.uk.

Councillor Barry Compton, Chairman of the Overview and Scrutiny Committee, said: "Keeping our residents safe is a key part of our role and we would greatly value the input of local people so we can work together to make Tandridge the safe and pleasant place it is both to live and work in. As well as sharing details of the work we do together, there will also be an opportunity for residents to ask questions."
